

Grade 3

LEADING OTHERS

Objectives: Session 1

- Share personal goals.
- Discuss the importance of setting goals.

Objectives: Session 2

- To emphasize that success occurs when you play to the STRENGTHS of others
- To have productive discussions about how groups/people work
- Why is delegating so important to a successful team?

Objectives: Session 3

- Name different communities in which people can concurrently hold membership, such as family, class, and school.
- Demonstrate awareness that good citizens of a community recognize and address community needs, such as food, clothing, and shelter for all.
- Identify important community needs.

Objectives: Session 4

- List the roles and responsibilities of a citizen in the family, class, and school.
- Recognize that good citizens assume active roles in the family, class, and school.

Objectives: Session 5

- Recognize that good leaders take care of and preserve their family, class, and school communities.

- Illustrate that respect and caring for others include sharing classroom and school resources.

Objectives: Session 6

- Recognize that community needs can be more important than individual benefits.
- Knowing what it means to have a unselfish behavior.
- List ways that good leaders care about the needs of others.

ECONOMIC COMMON SENSE

Objectives: Session 1

Goods and Services

- Who produces goods and services?

Objectives: Session 2

- People Use Resources to Produce What Other People Want
- Factors of Production: Natural Resources, Labor, Capital
- Resources in the School

Objectives: Session 3

Impact of need and want

- Define demand and supply.
- Discuss its impact on money.

Objectives: Session 4

Buy and Sell

- Define trade.

- Difference between barter and direct trade.
- Describing real life example of barter and direct trade

Objectives: Session 5

Money

- Define money.
- Discuss different currencies.
- Discuss different type of currencies and coins.

Objectives: Session 6

Who are you?

- Define consumer.
- Illustrate consumer duties.

TEAMWORK

Objectives: Session 1

- To enable learners to understand the value of compromise while working in a team
- To encourage learners to instill the value of cooperation and become a cooperative team worker

Objectives: Session 2

- To encourage learners to listen actively
- To encourage learners to convey a message clearly, concisely, and directly

ENVIRONMENT and SUSTAINABILITY

Objectives: Session 1

Energy, Water and the environment

- Highlight the importance of energy and water
- Identify the human bond with the environment

Objectives: Session 2

Reduce, Reuse and Recycle

- Understand the benefits of reducing, reusing and recycling waste

ETHICS & VALUES

Objectives: Session 1

- Identify similarities and differences among each other with regards to social/physical differences, attitudes, abilities, likes, dislikes etc.
- Develop an appreciation of individual and cultural differences
- Demonstrate cooperation with others
- Draw a unique person

Objectives: Session 2

- Develop an understanding that it is important to tell the truth
- Identify consequences of hiding the truth

Objectives: Session 3

- Demonstrate awareness of the need to compromise with others
- Learning ways to resolve a conflict rather than fighting over

Objectives: Session 4

- Develop a respect for rules in life
- Understand the importance of rules
- Learn that following the rules require self-control