

Grade 4

LEADING OTHERS

Objectives: Session 1

- Identify factors that contribute to self-image, such as success and failure or acceptance and rejection.
- Investigate outside factors that may influence self-image, such as others' opinions in certain situations.
- Recognize that self-image may change over time and in different situations.

Objectives: Session 2

- Discuss personal style of interacting effectively with others.
- Predict future leadership roles and steps necessary to achieve them.

Objectives: Session 3

- Determine the needs and concerns of classmates or group members, such as friendship, approval, and acceptance.
- Act as a member of a group to develop a plan for addressing group needs and concerns.

Objectives: Session 4

- Identify and discuss leadership qualities, such as responsibility, courage, and reliability (in addition to honesty, care for others, civility, and fairness).
- Describe leadership traits, and distinguish between positive and negative examples of these traits in the school, peer group, local community, and state.

Objectives: Session 5

- Discuss 4 famous personalities and discuss their leadership qualities
- Understanding the recognition of others' efforts,
- Embracing problem solving skills and Conflict Resolution

Objectives: Session 6

- Understand that followers can support and advance the cause of their leaders.
- Examine the importance of being an informed follower and the role of flexibility in being a follower.
- Explain the importance of active participation as a follower.

ECONOMIC COMMON SENSE

Objectives: Session 1

Private and Public

- Identify private and public goods.

Objectives: Session 2

Your Need Vs. Your Want

- Recall need and want.
- Relate your need and want with others in society.

Objectives: Session 3

Market and Money

- Recall the definition of trade.
- Illustrate how money differs country to country.

Objectives: Session 4

Who is who?

- Recall demand-supply
- Relate producer, seller and buyer through demand-supply ratio.

Objectives: Session 5

- Understanding Scarcity

Objectives: Session 6

- Save Money
- Illustrate the need to save money.

TEAMWORK

Objectives: Session 1

- To instill the value of honesty in learners and develop skills that facilitates honesty and integrity by performing common group activities

Objectives: Session 2

- To encourage learners to develop the value of trust
- To encourage learners to perform an activity that helps them identify qualities in others that make them trustworthy

ENVIRONMENT and SUSTAINABILITY

Objectives: Session 1

The ecosystems and the Green revolution

- Understand the major ecosystems of the world.
- Understand the importance of green revolution

Objectives: Session 2

Pollution and Global warming - a stigma in the nature

- Identify what is pollution?
- Understand the hazards of global warming

ETHICS & VALUES

Objectives: Session 1

- Understand that the words spoken can never be taken back and can cause hurt.
- Identify ways to control oneself and think before speaking even in crucial situations. (how to control one's words and speak only when required)

Objectives: Session 2

- Taking responsibility for the consequences of our actions, good or bad.
- Taking responsibility of one's actions instead of blaming others.
- Using Brains and thinking before acting , imagining consequences

Objectives: Session 3

- Understand that the wrong remains wrong and cannot be justified.
- Identify the excuses we make to justify and something that is wrong and correct it.

Objectives: Session 4

- Understanding that mistake can happen and should learn to forgive.
- Identify the value and importance of forgiveness.

Empathy & Compassion

Objectives: Session 1

- Understand what it means to be controlled by force and suppressed.
- Understand the suffering that animals go through when confined to a cage and the physical and mental pain felt by the animals.
- Empathise with the voiceless creatures in cages and zoos.
- Take positive actions to make a difference in the lives of the animals in cages and zoos.

Objectives: Session 2

- Identify the fact that our careless ways can affect other people and creatures on earth.
- Empathize with other people and creatures.
- Recognize that the world prospers when we empathize with every living being.